ALL SOULS DAY

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

For All Soul's each year, parishes have the custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which community members and visitors write the names of their beloved dead.

A Book of Remembrance, also called the Book of the Names of the Dead, will be placed behind the pew on the left side as you enter the church. This book will be left open for you to write the names of your family members and friends you would like to remember. The book will be carried to the altar with the Offertory gifts at Masses until the end of November

There are sample copies of the "Give Us This Day" missals for the month of November in the Narthex to help prepare us more for the upcoming Advent season. They have morning prayers, Mass, reflections, evening prayers and nightly prayers with examinations of conscience all in one book. Please help yourself and help your spiritual growth this Advent.

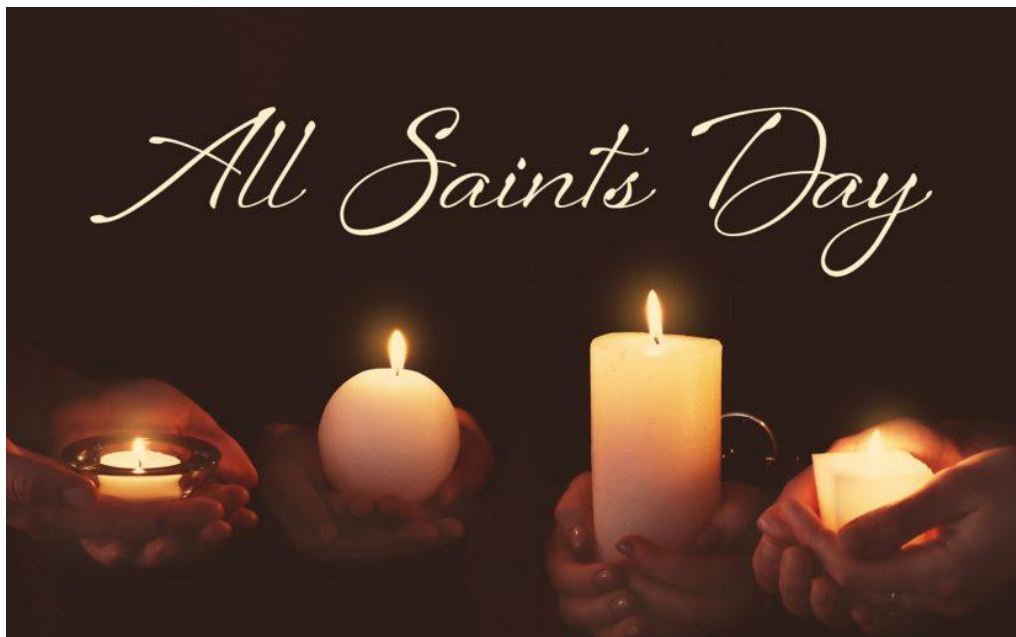

A Parish town hall meeting will be held on Sunday, November 9th immediately after the 11 am Mass. The meeting will take place in the Parish Life Center beginning with brunch, followed by a slide presentation of the highlights made in the last 3 years, along with the projected updates needed for this parish. Please use the sign up sheet in the Narthex to confirm your attendance as this is a catered event and requires a headcount for the caterer. This is the last weekend to sign up to attend.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

. Bags need to be returned to the Parish Life Center before November 16th. If you wish to contribute towards a ham or turkey instead of purchasing groceries, please make checks payable to "Helping Hands United" and note Thanksgiving Bags on your check. Thank you for your generosity. Contact Christine Benedett with questions at 864 391 5433

All Saints' Day (November 1) honors all saints, both canonized and uncanonized, who have gone to heaven, while All Souls' Day (November 2) is a day of prayer for all the faithful departed, especially those in Purgatory. All Saints' Day is a holy day of obligation in the Catholic Church to remember those who are already in heaven, while All Souls' Day focuses on praying for those who are on their journey to heaven.

	All Saints' Day	All Souls' Day
Date	November 1	November 2
Focus	All saints in heaven, both recognized and unrecognized	All the faithful departed, particularly those in Purgatory, awaiting purification
Purpose	To honor those who have achieved heaven through faith and grace	To pray for the souls of loved ones and all who have passed away
Cultural Traditions	Often a holy day of obligation for Catholics	May include visiting cemeteries, decorating graves, and lighting candles

Father Jacob will be out of town at a retreat from Monday, November 3rd and will return on Thursday, November 6th. There will not be Mass on Wednesday, November 5th.
